Horsburgh & Scott Receives Evolution of Manufacturing Award from Smart Business for Over 130 Years of Innovation in Gearing

Cleveland, OH: February 23, 2017 – Horsburgh & Scott received the “Evolution of Manufacturing” award from Smart Business magazine “in recognition of demonstrating the ability to adapt to the changing world and taking manufacturing to the next level.” Horsburgh & Scott was one of only 16 manufacturing companies in Ohio honored for this award from Smart Business.

Horsburgh & Scott has come a long way since its establishment in 1886, with over 400,000 square feet of industrial space between East 49th and East 53rd street on St Clair Avenue in Cleveland, Ohio. Pushing through the Great Depression, World War II and 130 years of changing times and business cycles, Horsburgh & Scott has evolved, grown, and become an innovative leader in the global gearing industry with a full suite of Engineering, Manufacturing, Rebuild & Repair, Heat Treating and Quality disciplines to serve its customers.

Horsburgh & Scott has remained at the forefront in the gear industry from application engineering and utilizing a consultative selling process to design engineering and manufacturing expertise that provides customers with an unmatched value proposition for their total cost of ownership in critical applications. The company was recently inducted into the American Gear Manufacturers Association (AGMA) Hall of Fame for being one of only a few remaining original members.

Josh Mandel, State Treasurer of Ohio said: “Your steadfast dedication to manufacturing and economic development makes you a valuable asset to the business community and the state of Ohio. As a distinguished, leading manufacturer, you have demonstrated high levels of integrity while making vital contributions to the local economy. Your innovation and creativity have raised the bar for excellence and your leadership has built a growing machine for success. Now, more than ever, manufacturing is vital to Ohio’s economy and the future of our great state, and I commend your dedicated efforts to bring pride and profile to the skilled trades.”
