

Machinist (2nd Shift)

Job Summary

Responsible for operating machinery to produce precision metal products. Ensure products meet precise quality specifications.

Primary Responsibilities

Operate machinery such as lathes, milling machines, and grinders to produce quality product.

Ability to operate manual and/or cnc machinery.

Read and understand electronic and written blueprints.

Knowledge of material grades and their relationship to speeds and feeds.

Responsible for setup and removal of parts from machinery.

Execution of roughing and finishing operations.

Monitor and control feed rates and speeds.

Knowledge in measuring equipment with the ability to measure to .001" tolerances.

Measure and record dimensions during and upon completion of product.

Modify programs in response to problems.

Write basic programs (preferred but not required)

Responsible for maintaining a clean and SAFE work environment.